‘SUMMER BLOOMS’ pop-up art show and sale

Saturday, May 25, 2019, Laskay Hall, King City

Arts Society King (ASK) is partnering with the Nobleton King City Garden Club (another fantastic local organization) and together we will bring together original art and the art of gardening.

ASK will present ‘SUMMER BLOOMS’ a pop-up art show and sale and the Garden Club will host their annual plant sale. Together we will attract and welcome a broad audience and deliver an exceptional event. Arts Society King will manage our artists and the art show and sale and the Garden Club will manage their members, plant sales, display of plants etc.

The ‘Summer Blooms’ pop-up art show and sale will be indoors in charming Laskay Hall (at the King Heritage and Cultural Centre). The plant sale will be outdoors at Laskay Hall. There is access and flow to both set-ups.

Arts Society King will manage all art sales for a 30% commission. Following the show on Wednesday, May 29, any unsold art can be picked up and ASK will provide payment to artists (minus commission) on any art sold.

Laskay Hall has space for approximately 30 pieces of art spread throughout the room on easels, the chair rail ledge around the room and table-top displays. It will be a quaint and charming look with warm wood walls, floor and lots of windows. Artists can submit 2-4 pieces each and we ask that you consider the audience and provide a variety of sizes and price points. We are hoping for a ‘cash and carry’ experience for the visitors.

Applications will be accepted based on compliance with theme and all requirements and available space.
